After high school, I attended Grossmont College and went on to San Diego State to get my Secondary Teaching Credential in 1969. I married Skip Turner in 1968. I taught Home Economics at Vista High School from January 1970 until March 1973, when I had our first son, Todd. Our daughter, Kelly, came along 17 months later, followed by Luke in 1979. I was a "stay-at-home mom" for 13 years, before returning to full-time teaching in 1989. This time teaching middle school Health and Family Life. I was a single mom for three years, when I married my present husband, Glenn Mackley, in 1991. We will be married 23 years on July 13th. Between us, we have six grown children and 13 grandchildren that range in age from 26 years to six years. Our kids all live within driving distance, so we have great family times regularly.

I am retired now (Glenn semi retired), so we are able to travel, sometimes in our RV, or just flying somewhere and renting a car. Glenn has a jeep and we enjoy camping and off roading, too.

So life is very busy these days....with family and grandkids, time with friends, being involved in our church, North Coast Church in Vista, and traveling.
