Dear friends, this is to let you know I have had the honor of being awarded with NASA's Exceptional Public Service Medal. I'm sure you all understand I'm absolutely thrilled and I would like all of you to share my happiness. The Medal was presented to me June 28, 2011 at a ceremony that took place in Madrid's Complex to where four NASA and two JPL high managers traveled for the purpose.

Dear Carlos,

Congratulations! NASA will be awarding you with an Exceptional Public Service Medal. The award is for sustained performance and significant contributions to operational support at the Madrid Deep Space Communications Complex.

This award is presented to a number of carefully selected individuals who have distinguished themselves by making outstanding contributions to the NASA Mission.

JPL's award ceremony is scheduled to take place on Tuesday, July 19th at 10:00 a.m. on the JPL Mall. You will receive a ceremony and luncheon invitation in the near future. If you have any questions regarding the program or the ceremony, contact Daniel Loo at (818) 354-0390. Once again, congratulations on an outstanding achievement.

Sincerely,

Deputy Director, Jet Propulsion Laboratory
