

Fran Oderkerk (Rehmann)

In the last 50 years I have lived a very happy life living right here in San Diego. After graduation I moved during those years first to El Cajon, then Santee, Rancho Penasquitos, and for the past 17 years in Poway. I have raised 2 children, own a successful business and now am the retired grandmother of 4. My husband passed away 4 years ago and happy to be remarrying this October to a wonderful man. I have been lucky enough all these years to have my twin sister Cori also stay in San Diego. We remain as close as ever.
