Joni is the Contracts & Compliance Officer for the Integrits Corporation, a small disadvantaged veteran owned business formed in February 2000, providing information technology (IT) services to the U.S. Department of Defense for integration of shipboard Command & Control and weapon systems. After receiving her BS in Computer Information Science, Joni studied and achieved her Certified Professional Contracts Manager certification from the National Contracts Management Association and an Advanced Contract Management certification from San Diego State University. As an official of the USA Track & Field Official's Association, she officiates at college meets and road races. She is a 6 time recipient of the USA Track and Field (USATF) Athlete of the Year award from the San Diego-Imperial Association. Along the way, she has won 12 National Championships with best times in the 1500m of 4:54.96 and the 800m in 2:25.30 after the age of 40. She has placed 5th in the Masters Division of the Boston Marathon with a time of 2:56. At age 45, she set the American Indoor Record for the 3K run which was lowered in 2003 by Joan Benoit. In 2002 Joni set the World Record in the National Masters Indoor Mile in 5:43.97 for age division 55-59 at the Reggie Lewis facility in Boston. For the past 10 years, Joni has been a member of and traveled with a tournament softball team that is based out of the San Francisco area. I'm married to a wonderful guy, Graeme, who shares life with me.
