I graduated from San Diego State in 1968 and joined the San Diego County Probation Department. After 32 years of service I retired in 2002 as Superintendent of San Diego Juvenile Hall (who'd of thought?). Married Holly in 1987 and have two outstanding daughters; Casey, who graduated from UC Davis in 2012, and Carly, who will be graduating from UC San Diego in 2016. Life is great --- eternally searching for the perfect hamburger.
