After graduation went to Grossmont College and studied art for a while. In November of 1965 went in the Navy and served 4 years, n March 1970 was employed by Pacific Bell and worked their for 27 years. On March 17th 1974 I married my wife who was an opera singer who graduated from Hoover High in 1945. On March 17th 1990 my wife "Enola" and I renewed our vows. I retired in 1997 and have lived in Santee, Ca. for over 40 years. My wife died in July 2011 and now live alone. Before she died, at the age of 70 she produced an album of love songs and also was on t.v. at age 75.
singing.

Listen to my wife Enola sing the song "Evergreen" and then you can access the other songs from my name listed as John Williamson.
